

I Location

- Military — non nuclear & nuclear
1. distance from other power centers
 2. distance from ^{strategic} control centers
 3. nature of adjoining states

Paramil.

1. ease of operations in outside areas

Non military

1. ease of subverting outside areas —

II

Size and Shape — psychological

depth of defense
maneuverability
dispersion of resources

~~III~~

Shape

contiguity of territory
maneuverability

III

Boundaries

mil. — conventional —

Access to sea — mastery of sea

Ease of land access to objectives

* Maneuverability of defense problem posed by boundary access to sea — ice free

Nuclear

Access to reconstr - subs

Para.

Ease of access

Non mil.

Ease of access. —

II — Disparity of physical environmental knowledge Mapping Utilization by Soviets as tool Oceanography for economic penetration Geology and in devel. of their own
Resource development resources